CALL FOR PAPERS

48th International Conference on Sino-Tibetan Languages and Linguistics (ICSTLL 48)

University of California, Santa Barbara
August 21-23, 2015

http://www.linguistics.ucsb.edu/icstll

The 48th International Conference on Sino-Tibetan Languages and Linguistics will be hosted by the Department of Linguistics at the University of California, Santa Barbara, August 21-23, 2015. The UC Santa Barbara campus is located just to the north of Santa Barbara, California, USA.

Plenary Speakers
Scott DeLancey (University of Oregon)
Balthasar Bickel (University of Zurich)

We invite submission of abstracts for presentations covering all aspects of linguistic research on Sino-Tibetan and other area languages. Papers may treat issues in any subfield of linguistics, they may present field reports, or they may involve research in allied fields, such as linguistic anthropology or prehistory. Papers will be allotted twenty minutes for presentation followed by ten minutes for questions and discussion. Papers should be presented in English.

Abstracts should conform to the following guidelines:

- No longer than 350 words
- Written in English
- Should not include the name and affiliation of the presenter
- Should be sent as an email attachment (MS Word compatible or PDF) to icstll48@yahoo.com.

Deadline for abstract submission: May 1st, 2015.
Pre-Meeting Workshops

Thursday, August 20th

❖ How Grammars Encode Space in Tibeto-Burman

❖ Preserving Cultural Heritage in Ethnic Tibetan Communities in China

The workshops will consist of invited presentations and discussion; they are not open to submission of abstracts. For further information, follow the links on the conference website. People interested in participating should contact the workshop organizers listed there.

Important dates

May 1st, 2015: Deadline for abstract submission
May 20th, 2015: Notification of acceptance
July 15th, 2015: Deadline for registration at discounted rate (details to follow)

Please check the conference website regularly for updates on travel, accommodation, plenary speakers, workshops, and registration.

Please address inquiries to: icstll48@yahoo.com